As an antidote to forgetfulness, for that lost moment when tomorrow has made of today a yesterday . . . such is the 1944 HACAWA, to recall for you a patch of pleasure in the design of your college life.

It seems impossible that you may not remember that the Science Building once had a balcony where now there is an office . . . how you went to early chapel, the marvel of morning awakening you to worship . . .

INDEX TO

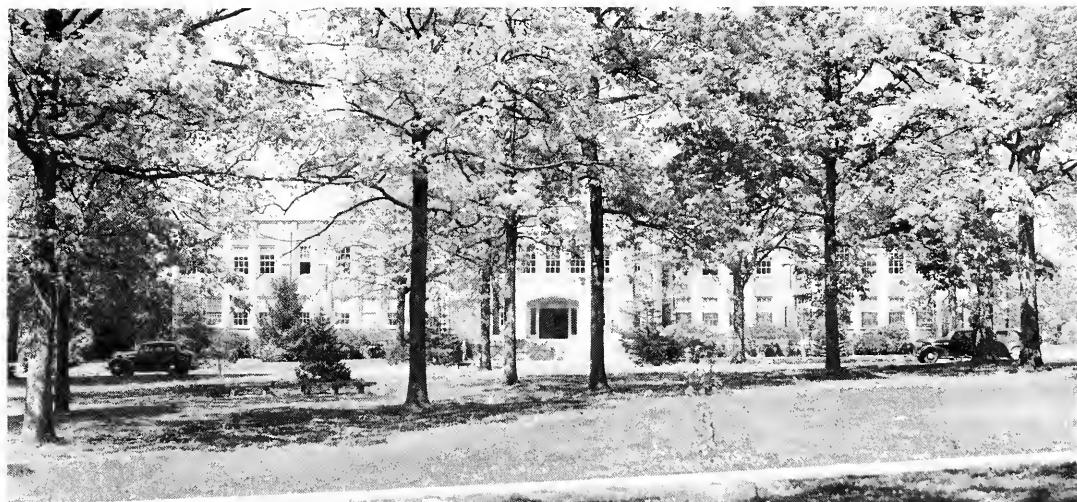

YODER SCIENCE BUILDING

ST. ANDREW'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

ECOLLECTION

you may not even remember the name of the girl who sat beside you in Bible 5 . . . how we gathered on the Ad Building steps to "shoot bull" . . . the green blitz of spring come to the campus . . . the sound of the siren, the buzz of bells.

VIEW OF AD BUILDING FROM ENTRANCE

All these and other memories, which both grand and dull, might escape you . . . we have tried to capture and embody in this, the 1944 HACAWA.

DEDICATION

TO A FRIEND AND A COUNSELLOR . . .

For understanding of fairness, for unending coöperation, for lasting accomplishments toward the greater Lenoir Rhyne, for loyalty, for nineteen years . . . we dedicate THE 1944 HACAWA, to PROFESSOR EDWIN L. SETZLER.

PROFESSOR SETZLER

The Carl Augustus Rudisill Library

The new library! . . .

*So proudly, we acknowledge Mr. Carl A.
Rudisill of Cherryville, our benefactor.*

*Our pleasure is coupled with praise for Paul Whitener's portrait of Mr. Rudisill . . .
the handsome furnishings . . . the neatness . . .
the diligence of the Misses Aderholdt, our librarians.*

THE FUN

The traditional Freshman Sunday wedding was un-solemized . . . a twilight candle-light service for the installation of Luther League officers was held at the Service Cross . . . Y. W. C. A. "trucked" out to Mr. C. M. Yoder's for a Cotton-pickin', and a picnic later . . . Bernice Carpenter, champion picker . . . I. R. C.'s Old Fashioned Sing in Mauney Hall Lounge with Becky Conrad leading . . . then the annual treatment of fraternal pledges . . . these "brothers by choice" find it necessary to "assume the angle" frequently during pledge week . . .

WE HAD

A bonfire on College Field kindled the pep and enthusiasm for the march up town to the Square and Lenoir Rhyne's first War Bond Rally . . . Soft lights, sweet music—dance and romance at the first formal fling of the year with all credit due the Seniors . . .

A definite hit, pleasing to all, was "Arms and the Man," produced by the Playmakers as the annual fall play. Yoder and Wahlberg starred with Wakefield, Miller, Lineberger, Deal, Kipps, and Terry supporting magnificently . . . The Flora-Doras, somewhat reduced in number but not in size or kickability, thrilled the throngs as usual in this year's super Kampus Kapers per Junior Class.

INDOOR CONCESSION OF JUNIOR STORE

T H E

DOUBLE OR NOTHING TWICE AS GOOD!

Conversion of the long-vacated bear cage into a profitable Junior Store, a "plus" production of Kampus Kapers, and a Valentine informal dance featuring "Miss Lenoir Rhyne" paved the financial way for a big Junior-Senior ending the year with satisfied sighs.

HAVING A

... And once a year, before dorm open-house, the daily grime hits the incinerator (that's a broom, not a shovel, she's leaning on) . . . Lt. Golden's post-mess duty was to direct the girls in drills . . . novel Naval inspection . . . When the leaves felt like "Wheaties" underfoot, the Y. W. C. A. girls pitched in with rakes and brooms and cleared the campus . . . Portrait of the Lenoir Rhyne ratio, three-to-one—with a background intramural football on Thanksgiving day . . . The "Open-housing plan" for fun has continued this year on a weekly basis . . . Added attraction to open-house, Jack Young's band furnishing informal-ating music . . .

LARGE TIME

... On warm days, town girls study outside—it keeps the four walls of the town girls' lounge from getting monotonous . . . We present "Miss Lenoir Rhyne, 1944." Miss Freda Miller of Lenoir, dancing with Cadet-instructor Jimmy Mitchell . . . Rankling rhythm from the three Guitarzans of Kampus Kapers—produced just enough of a hill-billious note to go with Hager's corn . . . Big splash was G B X annual Christmas dance—accent on atmosphere, and the Christmas spirit—a very special occasion . . .

You won't forget these things . . . dust under that bed . . . showing off at drill . . . how you sweated over your rake . . . cadating at open-house . . . cramming . . . flirting . . . Freda's beauty . . . "Pistol Packin' Mama" . . . the G B Xcellent touch!

ONCE IN

Not the Rockettes . . . but precision practice anyhow, just like the big time with a dash of publicity . . . Physics lab: a glimpse of varied sentiments—curious, worried, gabby and gay . . . Reflection of Town lounge life . . . lockers and more lockers . . . This display of will-power alias study is a camouflaged way of leaving nights open for something more delectable . . . The Assembly Room, nucleus of much of campus-life . . . Fraternity stag outings with plenty of high-grade "stakes," the eatin' kind, and plenty of low-grade jokes . . .

A WHILE

women they met here—Sudie and Bob . . .
Third finger, left hand, diamond! It's a real Lenoir Rhyne trend this year. These six girls compare carats . . . Blanchard brushes up on her "Good Housekeeping." This section of the Fiction Room in the library is most popular . . . Late for class, almost—8:24, and they don't ever hurry—nobody does . . . Only once in a while . . .

THE 1944 HACAWA

This HACAWA must speak for itself as a record of this school year . . . a reminder, in the years to come, that this Lenoir Rhyne was you in 1944.

We hope it says what you want to hear . . . for now and future reference.

Our thanks to all of you who have helped to make this annual publication possible.

The study of the relationships of nations is the theme of the International Relations Club, giving the students freedom to discuss frankly and intelligently national and international affairs. Accomplishments were a Rally, regular discussion groups, socials, conferences, a world-art display and guided individual study.

Though not officially organized this year, this group represents those juniors and seniors who are preparing for the teaching profession. Practice teaching for the seniors is a special activity in which members of the groups must individually participate.

The French Club was organized this year with Mrs. Albert Keiser as faculty adviser. The club has done much to further interest in the French language, in French literature and in the country of France.

LA TERTULIA

GRACE SETZER, Acting President

La Tertulia is an organization for progressive Spanish students at Lenoir Rhyne. To advance their knowledge of Spanish, the members of La Tertulia learn songs and discuss customs and biographies of Spanish-speaking people. Dr. M. M. Maya is the faculty aide to the club.

FEATURES

INTRAMURAL

COACH SHORE NEAL

Since there could be no intercollegiate competition this year, special interest was placed on the development of the individual through activity classes and intramural games.

Under the direction of Coach and Mrs. Neal, student interest and participation in intramurals has grown.

The touch-football season was somewhat hampered due to the shortage of players, but, of the teams, the freshmen came out undefeated. Outstanding players were Walton, Smith, Entzi, Efird, and Rhyne.

PROGRAM

In basketball season, the Sophomore girls and boys were the victors. For the Sophomore girls, Ketner and Houser, starred. Stiff competition from the other teams was given by Dover, Johnson and Wakefield. The Sophomore boys romped through nearly every game with an easy lead with outstanding playing by Entzi, Efird and Williams. Baxter, Hill, Rockett and Hord played well for the other teams.

With the coming of spring, baseball hits the limelight with Smith as star pitcher.

In tennis, Emma Lee Rhyne, champion of last year, leads in the tournament.

CADET TRAINING PROGRAM . . .

At Lenoir Rhyne, Naval Aviation Cadets receive their first actual flight training. They come to Lenoir Rhyne from Flight preparatory schools.

This war training service is Lenoir Rhyne's major contribution to the war effort.

The school here is the second phase of the training of Naval Aviation Cadets who will one day become flying officers with the fleet, wearing the Navy "Wings of Gold."
